

King and Messiah Week 33

Memorize Romans 5:8.

Read Matthew 27

What stood out the most as you read the chapter?

Read Hebrews 10:19-22 (The Veil Was Torn)

What is the significance of the tearing of the veil?

The Veil Was Torn For The Indifferent

Put yourself in Pilate's place. Using the text, make a list of reasons for and against crucifying Jesus.

Why is indifference to Jesus just as bad as outright rejection?

Verse 54 is an illustration of the indifferent being shaken from their position. Who can you be praying for and sharing with in hopes that God will shake them from their current position?

The Veil Was Torn For The Betrayers

If you were Judas' best friend, what kind of love and counsel would you have given him after he realized his mistake?

How do we know that even the worst of betrayers can be forgiven?

The Veil Was Torn For The Mockers

Read Matthew 27:44 and Luke 23:39-43. Some people don't like that Jesus tells the criminal he'll be with him in paradise. Why do you think that's difficult for people to understand?

If someone is mocking you for being a follower of Jesus, how does the Bible guide you to respond?

Big Picture

What does the cross say about the seriousness of our sin?

How does Jesus' death on the cross rule out our attempts at works based righteousness?

Read 1 Corinthians 15:3-4. Why is Christ's death and resurrection of first importance?
